

Best Start Network- Indigenous Advisory Committee

Terms of Reference

1.0 Role

The Indigenous Advisory Committee (IAC) will be responsible for monitoring and planning for recommendations to the larger Network in matters relating to IAC programming and for promoting community collaboration as they pertain to the Best Start initiative.

Mission Statement: The IAC, through coordination, collaboration and cooperation will ensure an array of support for all urban Indigenous children (prenatal to the transition to school), and their families to ensure that urban Indigenous children have the best possible start in life.

Vision Statement: The IAC will guide and oversee the development of cultural program supports for urban aboriginal children and their families.

Guiding Principles: The IAC will abide by the guiding principles of the Terms of Reference for the Best Start Network. “Members must keep a global perspective when making decisions on what is best for the community.”

2.0 Goals

In support of its vision, the IAC, reporting to the Best Start Network, will achieve its vision through:

- Review and recommend Indigenous specific programming
- Recommendations of how to organize and integrate services to best meet the needs of urban Indigenous children and their families throughout Brantford/Brant County.
- Recommend a system of services that supports urban Indigenous children/parents/families, for a best start from pre-natal stages to their transition into the school system.
- Make reports and recommendations to the Best Start Network with respect to the consideration and needs of the Brantford/Brant County urban Indigenous community and identify any gaps in programs/services.
- Monitor the funding allocated for services and make recommendations for its expenditures to the larger Best Start Network.

- Encouraging the development of coalitions, partnerships and alliances across all sectors within the community, Best Start Early Learning and Parenting Centres and Child Care
- Design and develop an Urban Indigenous Best Start Work Plan in conjunction with the Best Start Network broader plan.
- Recruit parent volunteer as representative of Brant Best Start Indigenous Advisory Subcommittee
- Responsible for all urban Indigenous content in communications (ie: website, magazine etc)
